Declaration of compliance with Accounting Standards and Accounting System

The Company applies Vietnamese Accounting Standards and supplementary documents issued by the State. Financial Statements are prepared and presented in accordance with regulations of each standard and supplementary document as well as with current Accounting Standards and Accounting System.

2.3. Basis for the preparation of the Consolidated Financial Statements

Consolidated Financial Statements are prepared based on consolidating Separate Financial Statements of the Company and Financial Statements of its subsidiaries under its control as at 30 September. Control right is achieved when the company has power to govern the financial and operating policies of invested companies to obtain benefits from their activities.

Consistent accounting policies are applied in Financial Statements of subsidiaries and the Company. If necessary, adjustments are made to the Financial Statements of subsidiaries to ensure the consistency of application of accounting policies among the Company and its subsidiaries.

The operating results of subsidiaries acquired or disposed during the period are included in the Consolidated financial statements from the effective date of acquisition or up to the effective date of disposal.

Balance, main incomes and expenses, including unrealized profits from intra-group transactions are eliminated in full from Consolidated financial statements.

Non – controlling interests represents the portion of profit or loss and net assets of subsidiaries not held by owners.

2.4. Accounting estimates

The preparation of Consolidated Financial Statements in conformity with Vietnamese Accounting Standards, Vietnamese Corporate Accounting System and legal regulations relating to financial reporting requires the Board of Management to make estimates and assumptions that affect the reported amounts of liabilities, assets and disclosures of contingent liabilities and assets at the date of the Consolidated Financial Statements and the reported amounts of revenues and expenses during the accounting period.

The estimates and assumptions that have a material impact in the Consolidated Financial Statements include:

- Provision for bad debts;
- Provision for devaluation of inventory;
- Provision for payables;

- Estimated allocation of prepaid expenses;
- Estimated useful life of fixed assets;
- Classification and provision of financial investments;
- Estimated income tax;
- Estimated construction cost.

Estimates and assumptions are continually evaluated based on historical experience and other factors, including expectations of future events that may have a financial impact on the Company and are assessed by the Board of Management to be reasonable under the circumstances.

2.5. Cash and cash equivalents

Cash comprises cash on hand and demand deposits.

Cash equivalents are short-term investments with the maturity of not over than 3 months from the date of investment, that are highly liquid and readily convertible into known amount of cash and that are subject to an insignificant risk of conversion into cash.

2.6. Goodwill

The goodwill is defined as the difference between the cost of the business combination and acquirer's interest in the net fair value of the identifiable subsidiable assets at the acquisition date held by Parent (the time when the parent company takes control of the subsidiary). Goodwill is allocated to costs by the straight-line method for an estimated useful period of 10 years. Periodically the Company will assess goodwill losses at the subsidiary, if there is evidence that the loss of goodwill is greater than the annual allocation, the allocation shall be based on the loss of goodwill in the year of arising.

2.7. Financial investments

Held-to-maturity investments comprise term bank deposits, loans, and bonds held to maturity for the purpose of earning periodic interest.

Investments in other entities comprise investments in equity instruments of other entities without having control, joint control, or significant influence on the investee. These investments are initially stated at original cost. After initial recognition, these investments are measured at original cost less provision for devaluation of investments.

Provision for devaluation of investments is made at the end of the period as follows:

- Long-term investments (other than trading securities) without significant influence on the investee: If the investment in listed shares or the fair value of the investment is determined reliably, provisions shall be made on the basis of the market value of the shares; if the fair value of the investment is not determined at the reporting date, provision shall be made based on the Financial Statements at the provision date of the investee.
- Investments held to maturity: provision for doubtful debts shall be made based on the recovery capacity in accordance with statutory regulations.

2.8. Receivables

The receivables shall be recorded in details in terms of due date, entities receivable, types of currency and other factors according to requirements for management of the Company. The receivables shall be classified into short-term receivables or long-term receivables on the consolidated financial statements according to their remaining terms at the reporting date.

The provision for doubtful debts is made for receivables that are overdue under an economic contract, a loan agreement, a contractual commitment or a promissory note and for receivables that are not due but difficult to be recovered. Accordingly, the provisions for overdue debts shall be based on the due date stipulated in the initial sale contract, exclusive of the debt rescheduling between contracting parties and the case where the debts are not due but the debtor is in bankruptcy, in dissolution, or missing and making fleeing or estimating the possible losses

2.9. Inventories

Inventories are initially recognized at original cost including purchase price, processing cost and other costs incurred in bringing the inventories to their location and condition at the time of initial recognition. After initial recognition, at the reporting date, inventories are stated at the lower of cost and net realizable value.

Net realizable value is estimated based on the selling price of the inventory minus the estimated costs for completing the products and the estimated costs needed for their consumption.

The cost of inventory is calculated using weighted average method.

Inventory is recorded by perpetual.

The value of work in progress is recorded based on each project that has not been completed or has not recorded revenue, corresponding to the amount of unfinished work at the end of the period.

Provision for devaluation of inventories made at the end of the period is based on the excess of original cost of inventory over their net realizable value.

2.10. Fixed assets

Fixed assets (tangible and intangible) are initially stated at the historical cost. During the using time, fixed assets are recorded at cost, accumulated depreciation/amortization and carrying amount.

Subsequent measurement after initial recognition

Subsequent expenditure is capitalized as an addition to the historical cost of tangible fixed assets only when it is probable that such expenditure will generate future economic benefits exceeding the originally assessed standard level of performance of the asset.

Other costs incurred after tangible fixed assets have been put into operation such as repair, maintenance and overhaul costs are recognized in the Statement of Income in the period in which the costs are incurred.

Fixed assets are depreciated (amortised) using the straight-line method over their estimated useful lives as follows:

▸ Buildings, structures	05 – 50 years
▸ Machinery, equipment	03 – 10 years
▸ Vehicles, Transportation equipment	04 – 08 years
▸ Office equipment and furniture	03 years
▸ Computer software	03 years

2.11. Investment properties

Investment properties are initially recognised at historical cost.

Investment properties held for capital appreciation prior to 01 January 2015 are depreciated on a straight-line basis similar to other fixed assets, but from 01 January 2015 are not depreciated.

Investment properties held for operating lease are recorded at cost, accumulated depreciation and carrying amount. Investment properties are depreciated using the straight-line method with expected useful life as follows:

▸ Shopping mall	47 years

2.12. Business Cooperation Contract (BCC)

Business Cooperation Contract (BCC) is a contractual agreement between two or more parties to conduct an economic activity but without creating a separate legal entity. This activity may be jointly controlled or not jointly controlled by the contributing parties, or controlled by one of the parties to the contract.

In cases where cash or assets are received from other parties as contributions to the BCC, such amounts are accounted for as liabilities. In cases where cash or assets are contributed to the BCC, the accounting treatment shall be determined based on the terms and the substance of the BCC to establish whether there is joint control or non-joint control over the BCC.

According to the agreed terms in the BCCs, the profit sharing is implemented in the following forms:

Profit sharing based on a percentage or as agreed between the two parties;

Profit sharing based on a percentage of the share selling price.

2.13. Short-term prepaid expenses

Expenses incurred that are related to the business operation results of multiple financial years are recorded as prepaid expenses to be gradually amortized into the business results of subsequent financial years.

The calculation and allocation of long-term prepaid expenses into the operating costs of each financial year are based on the nature and extent of each type of expense to select an appropriate amortization method and criteria.

The Company's prepaid expenses include:

- Tools and supplies: These include assets held by the Company for use in its normal business operations, with an historical cost of each asset being less than VND 30 million, and therefore, not qualifying for recognition as fixed assets under current regulations. The cost of tools and supplies is amortized on a straight-line basis over a period ranging from 01 to 03 years;
- Other prepaid expenses: These are recognized at cost and amortized on a straight-line basis over their useful lives from 01 to 03 years.

2.14. Payables

The payables shall be recorded in details in terms of due date, entities payable, types of currency and other factors according to the requirements for management of the Company. The payables shall be classified into short-term payables or long-term payables on the consolidated financial statements according to their remaining terms at the reporting date.

2.15. Borrowings

Borrowings shall be recorded in details in terms of lending entities, loan agreement and terms of borrowings.

2.16. Borrowing costs

Besides, regarding borrowings serving the construction of fixed assets and investment properties, the interests shall be capitalized even when the construction duration is under 12 months.

2.17. Accrued expenses

Accrued expenses include payables to goods or services received from the suppliers or provided for the customers during the reporting period, but the payments for such goods or services have not been made and other payables such as: interest expenses, accrued expenses to estimate the cost of goods sold construction, etc. which are recorded as operating expenses of the reporting period.

2.18. Provision for payables

Provision for payables is only recognized when meeting all of the following conditions:

- The Company has a present debt obligation (legal obligation or joint obligation) as a result of past events;
- It is probable that the decrease in economic benefits may lead to the requirement for debt settlement;
- Debt obligation can be estimated reliably

Value recorded as a provision for payables is the most reasonably estimated amount required to settle the current debt obligation at the end of the accounting year.

Only expenses related to the previously recorded provision for payables shall be offset by that provision for payables.

Provision for warranty obligation of construction project is estimated from 2% to 5% on value of the project based on the specification of each project and evaluation made by the Board of Management on actual time for warranty.

2.19. Owner's equity

Owner's equity is stated at actually contributed capital of owners.

Share premium is recorded at the difference between the par value with costs directly attributable to the issuance of shares and issue price of shares (including the case of re-issuing treasury shares) and can be a positive premium (if the issue price is higher than par value and costs directly attributable to the issuance of shares) or negative premium (if the issue price is lower than par value and costs directly attributable to the issuance of shares).

Retained earnings are used to present the Company's operating results (profit, loss) after corporate income tax and profits appropriation or loss handling of the Company.

Dividends to be paid to shareholders are recognised as a payable in Statement of Financial Position after the announcement of dividend payment from the Board of Directors and announcement of cut-off date for dividend payment Vietnam Securities Depository and Clearing Corporation.

2.20. Revenue

Revenue is recognized to extent that it is probable that the economic benefits will flow to the Company and the revenue can be reliably measures regardless of when payment is being made. Revenue is measured at the fair value of the consideration received, excluding discounts, rebates, and sales returns. The following specific recognition conditions must also be met when recognizing revenue:

Revenue from construction contract

In the case of a construction contract that stipulates when the contractor is paid based on the value of the volume performed, the results of the construction contract performance can be estimated reliably and confirmed by the customer, revenue and costs related to the contract are recognized corresponding to the completed work confirmed by the customer on the invoice.

Contract performance increases and decreases, bonuses and other payments are only included in revenue when agreed with the customer.

When the outcome of a construction contract cannot be estimated reliably, revenue is recognised only to the extent of contract costs incurred whose recovery is reasonably certain. Contract costs are recognised as expenses in the year in which they are incurred.

Revenue from real estate transfer

The revenue from real estate transfer is recognized when most of the risks and benefits associated with ownership of the property are transferred to the buyer.
